A note for parents of small children: Our church encourages its members and our visitors to include their children in our worship services. We understand that this practice will result in some distractions from time to time, and that forbearance and patience are required by all. Our foyer and all classrooms are equipped with speakers in order to serve as worship service behavior training areas or as cry rooms, as necessary. Please be mindful of others who may be being distracted from worship and avail yourselves of them.

Not All the Blood of Beasts

by Isaac Watts

1 Not all the blood of beasts
on Jewish altars slain, could give the guilty conscience peace,
or wash away the stain.

2 But Christ, the heav'nly Lamb, takes all our sins away,
a sacrifice of nobler name and richer blood than they.

3 My faith would lay her hand on that dear head of thine, while like a penitent I stand,
and there confess my sin.

4 My soul looks back to see the burdens thou didst bear, when hanging on the cursed tree,
and knows her guilt was there.

5 Believing, we rejoice to see the curse removed;
we bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
and sing his dying love.

tune: “Stand Up and Bless the Lord”

“Reformed theology recognizes the biblical contrast between law and gospel (Gal 3:8-14), a contrast that reveals “two covenants,” one of which puts sinners in bondage, and the other of which produces freedom by God’s Spirit (Gal 4:21-31)...as Paul explains in Rom 5:12-21, understanding both God’s covenant with Adam and the implications of Adam’s sin lays the foundation for understanding God’s covenant in Christ and the implications of Christ’s obedience.”
